PRESENTS

KNOW YOUR WORKPLACE RIGHTS:
Criminal Records and Employment

If you or someone you know has had difficulty retaining a job after being arrested or convicted of a crime, this workshop is for you. Come to learn about state and federal laws that protect individuals with criminal records from discrimination in the workplace.

Labor and employment attorneys from Hawks Quindel, S.C. will discuss the following topics:

- Unlawful hiring practices
- The difference between arrests and convictions
- Disclosing information on an employment application
- Interview questions an employer can ask
- Background check authorizations
- Access to information regarding your background check
- Firing decisions based on criminal records
- What to do if you believe you have been discriminated against

Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions at the conclusion of the presentation. Spanish audio will be available.
